TO OUR PATRONS.

GAIN we send you our greeting and catalogue and ask you to give it a careful reading as we believe you to be in proper mood to receive it, for the past year has been a most fruitful one to all tillers of the soil. It seems but fitting that the closing year of the century should be marked by a bountiful harvest.

Last year we did a large business—more than double that of the preceding year, and we think this a strong recommendation in our favor, as we consider our best advertisement to be a satisfied customer.

We do not hesitate to say that our seeds are the best that can be bought. All we ask is that you send us an order, no matter how small, and it shall receive our best attention. As our catalogue is annually read by thousands who have never before seen it, it is quite natural that some may doubt our reliability. To such we will refer you to G. R. Vincent, Postmaster, Hiram, O.; E. E. Harrington, Express Agent, Hiram, O.; Crafts, Hine & Co., Bankers, Mantua Sta., O.; First National Bank, Mantua Sta., O.; First National Bank, Garrettsville, O.

Address all letters, orders, etc., to H. F. House & Co., Lock Box 2, Hiram, Ohio.
Make all money orders payable at Hiram, Ohio.

Our seeds are the best money can produce. What more can you ask ?

Early Minnesota. Planted side by side of other early corn of different seedsmen last season it was less than one week later than the earliest, while in quality and size of ear it far excelled any other variety. The above was printed in our 1900 catalogue. Our trials of this corn the past season again demonstrated that this is the best earliness quality, size of ear and productiveness being considered. It was only four days later than Vermont, and was easily a winner when the above points of excellence were taken into account. Pkt. 5c; qt. 30c; pk. 85c; bu. $2.75.

Extra Early Vermont. Quality good. White cob and kernel. Early. Pkt. 5c; pt. 18c; qt. 30c.

pure white kernels, which are very sweet and tender and of splendid eating qualities. Has been grown ready for use in 60 days on sand and 72 days on heavy clay soils."

The above is the description given by reputable firms. We have never grown it, but knowing the reputation of those who endorse it we do not hesitate to recommend it. If it beats the Minnesota it must indeed be an "Early Giant." Pkt. 5c; pt. 20c; qt. 30c; pk. 85c; bu. $2.75.

DWARF ESSEX RAPE.

Is considered indispensable by the farmers of England and is fast coming into use here, on account of its rapid growth being ready to feed in ten weeks from sowing and yielding twenty-five to thirty tons of green forage to the acre.

It grows three feet tall and covers the ground so densely as to smother out all weeds. It can be sown all through the season, being perfectly hardy, withstands drought, and will produce a crop in any soil by sowing broadcast at the rate of five pounds per acre, or in drills two feet apart at the rate of three pounds per acre. While unequalled as a pasture for sheep, as a fattening food for all cattle, calves and pigs it is without a rival in point of cheapness, furnishing succulent food from May to December.
